

—DR. L. D. HARMAN, Forbes, Mo.
—See the Variety Store for Celebration Goods.
—Frank Petree was in Colorado this week, on legal business.
—Dr. Hogan had business in St. Joseph, Monday of this week.
—C. E. Munn, of Mound City, was an Oregon visitor, Monday.
—W. H. Richards has returned from a business trip to Clinton, Ill.
—We have repairs for Ford cars.
AUTO SALES CO.

—Charley Acton is harvesting in the wheat fields, near Great Bend, Kas.
—Norman Ennox and wife visited in St. Joseph over Sunday with relatives.
—Rev. P. T. Schmidt, of near Craig, was an Oregon visitor, one day last week.
—County Surveyor, John H. Peret had business in St. Joseph, Monday of this week.

—Attorney W. H. Richards was attending court in St. Joseph, the first of the week.
—We are sorry to learn of the alarming illness of Mrs. James C. Morris, of the Marion district.

—See Weary, the photographer, for first-class work, at prices as cheap as you can get them anywhere.
—Dr. Whitsell, eye and ear specialist, at corner 6th and Edmond, St. Joseph. Both Phones, 943.

—Charley Sears, of Kansas City, was here Wednesday last, visiting his uncle, Dr. John T. Thatcher.

—J. F. Markt and John Townsend are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Beulah Vaughan, at Hale, this state.

—George A. Baker was transacting business in St. Joseph and Savannah, Monday and Tuesday of this week.

—You should see the Standard Mower in five and six-foot cut at D. M. MARTIN'S.

—The Hotel Woodland is being decorated, and improved in other ways. Ed. Carroll is doing the decorating.

—We have secured the services of "Jim" Huntsman. 'Nuf said.

—Now is your time for Rockers, while the sale is going on.
OREGON FURNITURE CO.

—I keep a complete stock of DeLaval Separator Repairs.
D. M. MARTIN.

—Harry Baker, of Skidmore, was down, this week, visiting his father and mother, J. W. Baker and wife.

—For Prompt Service and Good Livery call THE AUTO SALES CO., Oregon, Mo.

—Call Mutual Phone No. 630, for all kinds of pipe and sheet metal work.
OREGON PLUMBING & HEATING CO.

—Mrs. Ernest Lindsey, of St. Joseph, enjoyed a few days' visit the past week, with Mrs. Edwin A. Welty.

—Dr. Sherman Hibbard, of Kansas City, was visiting relatives in Oregon and vicinity, for a few days, this week.

—A. A. Richardson and son Clyde, of St. Joseph, formerly of this city, were transacting business in Oregon, last week.

—W. C. Proud and wife and Harry Kreek and wife were in St. Joseph, Friday last, June 17, going down in the Doctor's car.

—Dr. Ben. Bailey, wife and little child, of Anadarko, Okla., are here on an indefinite visit with his parents, A. H. Bailey and wife.

—Studebaker gives you more and a better car for your money than anybody: all full-floating rear axle. Let D. M. Martin show you.

—John Colvin, of St. Joseph, Sunday in Oregon with his sister, Mrs. Dr. F. E. Markland, husband and daughter, Miss Blanche.

—Remember that we will send you THE SENTINEL and Kansas City Weekly Star, one year, for only $1.50, price of THE SENTINEL alone.

—Mrs. W. L. Meyer and daughter Lucile left last Friday to spend several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Liser, at Blackburn, this state.

—J. H. Cooksey, of the Benton district, made a speech the other day, thanking Mrs. Cooksey for that present—a fine baby boy, born June 15.

—Now is the time to get Good Dressers at a low price—they won't last long.
OREGON FURNITURE CO.

—Now is the time to have that heat put in your house. Let us figure on it. Mutual Phone, 630.
OREGON PLUMBING & HEATING CO.

—Mrs. Maud Fliegenbaum, and daughter Francis, of Geneva, Neb., are here enjoying a visit with uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Montgomery.

—Robert Hibbard, of Pottawatomie, Okla., is here enjoying a visit with his Holt county cousins, John and Arthur Hibbard, Mrs. Ed. Buntz and Mrs. E. O. Forney.

—Now is the time to get good furniture cheap, as this furniture has not to be cleaned out by the 15th of July. You will never buy furniture cheaper in Oregon.
OREGON FURNITURE CO.

—See the Variety Store for Celebration Goods.

—Plenty of old papers for sale at this office at 20c per 100.

—THE SENTINEL and Kansas City Weekly Star, one year, for only $1.50. Call at once.

—Howell county will collect $4.80 poll tax this year. Some counties are collecting as much as $6.

—One-half carload of Peter Schutler Wagons at $77.50 each. You better get in on this. D. M. MARTIN.

—Now is your time to get a Good Dining Table and Dining Chairs.
OREGON FURNITURE CO.

—For Prompt Service and Good Livery call THE AUTO SALES CO., Oregon, Mo.

—Mrs. Josie Welch, of St. Joseph, came up Tuesday evening for a few days' visit with her sister, Mrs. Curt Kennedy.

—Forty convicts have been selected for experimental work upon the public roads in Livingston county near Chillicothe.

—Mrs. C. J. Koock has returned from a visit with her parents in Jefferson City. Miss Mildred will remain a few days longer.

—Osmer Hardman and Sam Fleener, of New Point, were on the St. Joseph market with a carload of hogs, Wednesday of this week.

—We can give you anything in plumbing that you want. Mutual Phone, 630.
OREGON PLUMBING & HEATING CO.

—J. H. Knoch, our tailor, was in St. Joseph over Sunday, the guest of his sister, Mrs. Grill, who is in very feeble health from a stroke of paralysis.

—Dr. Krueger, Dental Specialist, will visit Forbes, Mo., every Thursday and Forest City every Friday. All work guaranteed. Prices reasonable.

—Frank Kneale and family, of Fillmore, were in Oregon, Saturday last, the guests of his mother, Mrs. James Kneale, and visiting numerous friends.

—Frank Borchers, of near Bigelow, is riding around in a "25-4," five passenger Maxwell car, fully equipped, purchased from the Auto Sales Co., of this city.

—Expert Extractions and Gold Work by Dr. Krueger, Dental Specialist. Ten years' experience. At Forbes every Thursday and at Forest City every Friday.

—Miss Bootle Price returned home Monday evening of this week, from a few days' visit in St. Joseph, and while there she attended the June meeting of the Baptist church.

—The high water mark of the Missouri river at St. Joseph for the past fourteen months was reached Tuesday, of last week, June 16, when the stream showed a gauge of 710.7 feet.

—J. M. Pugh, of Kansas City, is in the city, this week, visiting his sister, Mrs. J. H. Thompson. Mr. Pugh is prominently connected with the Jones Mercantile Company, of Kansas City.

—Prof. Coburn, head of the Chillicothe schools, was here a day or two last week, visiting old friends here and greeting many of his former students, when at the head of our schools.

—The annual harvesting of bluegrass seed on the Gelvin ranches, and other farms near Maitland, has been on the past week. It is estimated that the crop this year will approach the five figure line.

—We are sorry to learn that James B. Payne, of this city, is very sick, and is not improving very rapidly. His daughters, Mrs. P. M. Best and Mrs. D. M. Lay, of Kansas City, are here at his bedside.

—Graham Moore, Harve Meyer, Eber Sherman, Joe Holbrook, Fred Markt, Jr., John Townsend, Harry Alkire and Tom Boyd are all in Western Kansas helping to harvest the immense wheat crop.

—Mrs. T. S. Hinde is making several improvements to her residence property by the addition of a sleeping porch, toilet and bath room, and other improvements. Andrew Tochterman is doing the work.

—Mrs. Carrie Steinmetz, of St. Joseph, who has been visiting here for several weeks, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Edwin E. Weary, and family, returned to her home Wednesday evening of this week.

—The case of John Speer vs. the Home bank, at Forest City, set for hearing before Judge Davis, of Livingston county, Monday, of this week, did not come to trial, and was continued to Wednesday, July 1.

—Mrs. E. L. McDonald and children, Daniel, Madeline and Lillian, returned to their home in St. Joseph, Monday of this week, after a three weeks' visit with her parents, Daniel Kunkel, Sr., and wife, of this city.

—We have recently added to this garage an Oxygen Carbon Burner, the only safe way of removing carbon without injury to motor. Absolute satisfaction guaranteed or no pay.
WILLIAM HOESSICK,
With Harness & Foster.

—We have secured the services of "Jim" Huntsman. 'Nuf said.
AUTO SALES CO.

—We have a few Good Rugs left. Now is the time to get in on the low prices.
OREGON FURNITURE CO.

—George Burrier is now the owner of a Ford touring car, through the Keever-Cook agency. George sold 57 head of hogs the other day to Charley Noland that averaged 155 pounds, at $7.75.

—Mrs. Flora Jenkin and little daughter, Helen, returned to their home at Lincoln, Neb., last Saturday, after spending her vacation with her mother, Mrs. Mary Foley, and Brother Eldon.

—One of Craig's representative business men was in town the other day, and speaking of the wheat harvest of last year, remarked that there were 160 carloads of wheat shipped from that station during 1913.

—Members of Meyer Post will be noonday guests of their comrade, W. D. Lukens, at his country home west of Oregon, tomorrow, Saturday, June 27. They will go by the Interurban route, which leaves the depot at 12:10 p. m.

—John Peret, our hustling surveyor, was up in the Sharp's Grove district last week, looking into the matter of the road through Mrs. Mary Wise's place. It is likely that a concrete dam will be constructed on her land.

—Scott Hodgkin and the whole family will drive up to Rock Port next Sunday and visit with brother George Donovan; they will leave early, and Felma says they will take their breakfast along the road in some shady nook.

—Curtis Garber, wife and their two interesting little boys, of St. Joseph, are enjoying a part of their vacation visiting with Fred Markt and family. Mr. Garber is the manager for the Brittain Manufacturing Company, of that city.

—T. C. Duncan has a little corn field on his residence property. He has several hills of the "Hurbank ornamental corn." It has a small ear, and the blade has variegated stripes extending its full length. It is quite a curiosity.

—One of the little Sentney lads went out to the Sentney wheat field one day last week, while they were cutting the wheat and touched a match to a bunch of wheat, and before the fire could be checked, fully an acre was burned.

—John Martin, a former Oregon citizen, and a brother of D. M. Martin, of this city, but now a resident of Hills Ferry, Cal., resides within a few miles of St. Lassen, the volcano which is now in active eruption. John has some sons who reside nearby at the foot of the volcano, closer than we would like to live.

—Misses Mamie and Dorothy Pinkston, of St. Joseph, were here a few days the past week, visiting Grandma Margaret Collins, 'Nuf. Will and other relatives and friends. Mrs. Pinkston, we understand, contemplates returning to Maitland in the near future, with the expectation of making her future home there.

—Directly west, of Craig, and for some distance north and south from that point, says the Craig Leader, the Missouri River is doing much damage by erosion. Fritz Ernsting, William Wellman, Frank Robbins, John Volmer, Mrs. Lena Haer, Henry Ernsting, are losing their farms gradually by the greed of this erratic stream.

—Talk about your active, get-up-and-hustle young men of Oregon, we just want to call our readers' attention to one particular young man of this city, R. J. Smallwood, now in his 33rd year. Last week he was picking cherries from the top of a 30-foot ladder, and doing as good, if not a better job, than many of the young kids engaged in the same work.

—Since the Hessian fly, and the army worm has ruined our wheat, the crop is now being garnered and the reports have it the crop was never better or larger. The implement never before sold so many self-blinders, and tons of twine have been sold—and think the government at Washington still lives. Plague take the fly and the worm anyway. The annoying things had about scared us to death.

—A few years ago a candidate for office would have been signing his defeat warrant if he had made his campaign over the country in an auto, so thoroughly did the farmers detest machines. But this year one of the accepted ways of getting out to see the rural voters is by means of cars. The farmers have come right to the front in the easy method of traveling and there are probably more automobiles owned by farmers than by town people.—Hopkins Journal.

—D. A. Wright, of Holt county, Mo., speaking of the effect a coat of manure has on a poor spot in a field, remarks that early in the spring of 1913 he spread a heavy coat of manure on a field that was pretty well worn out. "Last year the corn on that manured spot was the best I had," he said. "And this season I can see just where I manured that old field in the difference in the color of the corn now growing. It certainly pays to save the manure."—Kansas City Drivers' Telegram, June 16.

—Miss Maude Partridge's friends knew she was in love, but how they knew it, we will never tell you; this is a secret that belongs to the girls. Now we all know it, for the St. Joseph Gazette of Saturday tells us that she and a Mr. Andrew Foster, of Topeka, Kas., were granted a permit to become husband and wife, in St. Joseph, Friday, June 16. We don't know that fellow as well as we know Maude, but we do know Maude, and know that he has captured a girl that will make him an A 1 wife.

—Mrs. Mary Foley returned last Thursday from Saint Deroin, Neb., bringing her mother, Mrs. Catharine Cox, home with her. Mrs. C. is in very poor health, and took much worse soon after arriving. Dr. Thatcher was called and at this writing she is feeling some better.

—Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Gray, of Watson, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. C. Anderson, and sister, Mrs. E. E. Evans, of Emporia, Kas., drove down in the doctor's car, Sunday, and spent the day with their son and brother, Raymond Anderson, who accompanied them back to Watson that evening. Mrs. Evans will go to Minnesota in a few days to make her future home.

—Carl Rush, accompanied by Marvin and Marie Hillyard, of St. Joseph, and Miss Elsie Hillyard, of Dubuque, Iowa, drove up in the former's car, Saturday evening, and made a visit with their young friend, Oakley Morris, returning home Sunday.

—M. C. Brumbaugh, Jim Mellugh, Smith Meadows and Dr. E. D. Patterson, of Maitland, were in town, Tuesday of this week, boosting for the big celebration to be held there July 4, and also for one of the best towns in Northwest Missouri.

—Have taken charge of the Harness & Foster garage, and am prepared to do all kinds of repair work on all kinds of cars. I absolutely guarantee my work to be satisfactory. Vulcanizing a specialty. A full line of accessories. WILLIAM HOESSICK.

—Mrs. George H. Conner, of Kirksville, Mo., is visiting here, the guest of Fred Wetzel and wife and Mrs. Kate Seaman. She will remain for several weeks, and will visit with friends in and around Forest City and Craig. She formerly resided in this county.

—George S. Lukens, one of our hustling real-estate dealers, has just completed a deal, whereby John F. Ramsay, of this city, trades his farm of 265 acres in Monroe county, this state, for a ranch of 1400 acres in Southern Missouri. Consideration, $25,500.

—Mrs. John Wilson, of Forbes, was suddenly taken down with an alarming acute attack of appendicitis Friday last and was taken to a St. Joseph hospital and operated upon the same day. Dr. Harmon, of that city, accompanied her, and she is reported as resting very well.

—Mrs. Mary Foley returned last Thursday from Saint Deroin, Neb., bringing her mother, Mrs. Catharine Cox, home with her. Mrs. C. is in very poor health, and took much worse soon after arriving. Dr. Thatcher was called and at this writing she is feeling some better.

—Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Gray, of Watson, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. C. Anderson, and sister, Mrs. E. E. Evans, of Emporia, Kas., drove down in the doctor's car, Sunday, and spent the day with their son and brother, Raymond Anderson, who accompanied them back to Watson that evening. Mrs. Evans will go to Minnesota in a few days to make her future home.

—Mrs. Mary Foley returned last Thursday from Saint Deroin, Neb., bringing her mother, Mrs. Catharine Cox, home with her. Mrs. C. is in very poor health, and took much worse soon after arriving. Dr. Thatcher was called and at this writing she is feeling some better.

—Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Gray, of Watson, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. C. Anderson, and sister, Mrs. E. E. Evans, of Emporia, Kas., drove down in the doctor's car, Sunday, and spent the day with their son and brother, Raymond Anderson, who accompanied them back to Watson that evening. Mrs. Evans will go to Minnesota in a few days to make her future home.

—Mrs. Mary Foley returned last Thursday from Saint Deroin, Neb., bringing her mother, Mrs. Catharine Cox, home with her. Mrs. C. is in very poor health, and took much worse soon after arriving. Dr. Thatcher was called and at this writing she is feeling some better.

—Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Gray, of Watson, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. C. Anderson, and sister, Mrs. E. E. Evans, of Emporia, Kas., drove down in the doctor's car, Sunday, and spent the day with their son and brother, Raymond Anderson, who accompanied them back to Watson that evening. Mrs. Evans will go to Minnesota in a few days to make her future home.

—Mrs. Mary Foley returned last Thursday from Saint Deroin, Neb., bringing her mother, Mrs. Catharine Cox, home with her. Mrs. C. is in very poor health, and took much worse soon after arriving. Dr. Thatcher was called and at this writing she is feeling some better.

—Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Gray, of Watson, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. C. Anderson, and sister, Mrs. E. E. Evans, of Emporia, Kas., drove down in the doctor's car, Sunday, and spent the day with their son and brother, Raymond Anderson, who accompanied them back to Watson that evening. Mrs. Evans will go to Minnesota in a few days to make her future home.

—Mrs. Mary Foley returned last Thursday from Saint Deroin, Neb., bringing her mother, Mrs. Catharine Cox, home with her. Mrs. C. is in very poor health, and took much worse soon after arriving. Dr. Thatcher was called and at this writing she is feeling some better.

—Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Gray, of Watson, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. C. Anderson, and sister, Mrs. E. E. Evans, of Emporia, Kas., drove down in the doctor's car, Sunday, and spent the day with their son and brother, Raymond Anderson, who accompanied them back to Watson that evening. Mrs. Evans will go to Minnesota in a few days to make her future home.

—Mrs. Mary Foley returned last Thursday from Saint Deroin, Neb., bringing her mother, Mrs. Catharine Cox, home with her. Mrs. C. is in very poor health, and took much worse soon after arriving. Dr. Thatcher was called and at this writing she is feeling some better.

—Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Gray, of Watson, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. C. Anderson, and sister, Mrs. E. E. Evans, of Emporia, Kas., drove down in the doctor's car, Sunday, and spent the day with their son and brother, Raymond Anderson, who accompanied them back to Watson that evening. Mrs. Evans will go to Minnesota in a few days to make her future home.

—Mrs. Mary Foley returned last Thursday from Saint Deroin, Neb., bringing her mother, Mrs. Catharine Cox, home with her. Mrs. C. is in very poor health, and took much worse soon after arriving. Dr. Thatcher was called and at this writing she is feeling some better.

—Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Gray, of Watson, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. C. Anderson, and sister, Mrs. E. E. Evans, of Emporia, Kas., drove down in the doctor's car, Sunday, and spent the day with their son and brother, Raymond Anderson, who accompanied them back to Watson that evening. Mrs. Evans will go to Minnesota in a few days to make her future home.

—Lee Chaddock and wife, of Kansas City, are visiting relatives here.

—Mrs. Laura Krall and child, of South Bend, Nebraska, are visiting relatives and friends here. She will be remembered as Miss Laura Funk.

—Will Lambert, of Nebraska City, Nebraska, returned home Monday of this week, after a few days' visit with Frank Watson and family and other relatives.

—Mrs. Henrietta Luckhardt, of Chicago; Mrs. William Drury, of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Mrs. Henry Thomas, of Mound City, are visiting here, guests at the C. D. Zook home.

—Drs. Proud & Hogan left Thursday morning of this week, at 5:30, via the automobile route, for St. Joseph, where they had an operation at one of the hospitals, the subject being Mrs. A. J. Rand, of Forbes.

—Ed. Heaton and family, of Craig, Sunday here, visiting Mrs. Heaton's sister, Mrs. Ulrich Burger, and family, his nephew, Cave J. Hunt, driving down in their car, and the evening rain compelled them to stay over until Wednesday morning.

—Miss Gladys Peacock, of Napoleon, S. D., was escorted from the train at Forest City, Monday of this week, by Sheriff Gelvin, and taken at once to the jail; she was wanted by her cousin, Mrs. George Gelvin, for the purpose of a visit; and they are surely enjoying each other's company.

—Last week, Hopkins voted on a proposition to grant an electric-light franchise, and it carried by a vote of 179 to 1 against. As soon as the vote was known Brother Moorhead, of the Hopkins Journal, ordered a typesetting machine. Congratulations to the town and the Journal.

—The heavy windstorm that passed through Corning and vicinity last Thursday, June 11, did much damage to fruit trees. A small twistler passed through the peach orchard of E. A. Rosellus, completely demolishing nine budded trees, heavily loaded with fruit.—Corning Mirror, June 19.

—Ice cream festival this Friday evening at the Union school house. It will be held in the schoolyard should the weather be suitable; otherwise it will be in the schoolhouse. Everything good, such as cakes, fruits, candies, etc. Come; bring your best partner, and have a delightful time.

—W. A. Reutter, wife and little child, have returned to their home in St. Joseph, after a visit with Mrs. Reutter's step-father, Mr. George Hridenbaugh, of Blair district, this county. Mr. Reutter is in charge of the stationery department of the Nelson-Hanne Printing Co., of that city.

—John Martin, a former Oregon citizen, and a brother of D. M. Martin, of this city, but now a resident of Hills Ferry, Cal., resides within a few miles of St. Lassen, the volcano which is now in active eruption. John has some sons who reside nearby at the foot of the volcano, closer than we would like to live.

—Misses Mamie and Dorothy Pinkston, of St. Joseph, were here a few days the past week, visiting Grandma Margaret Collins, 'Nuf. Will and other relatives and friends. Mrs. Pinkston, we understand, contemplates returning to Maitland in the near future, with the expectation of making her future home there.

—Directly west, of Craig, and for some distance north and south from that point, says the Craig Leader, the Missouri River is doing much damage by erosion. Fritz Ernsting, William Wellman, Frank Robbins, John Volmer, Mrs. Lena Haer, Henry Ernsting, are losing their farms gradually by the greed of this erratic stream.

—Talk about your active, get-up-and-hustle young men of Oregon, we just want to call our readers' attention to one particular young man of this city, R. J. Smallwood, now in his 33rd year. Last week he was picking cherries from the top of a 30-foot ladder, and doing as good, if not a better job, than many of the young kids engaged in the same work.

—Since the Hessian fly, and the army worm has ruined our wheat, the crop is now being garnered and the reports have it the crop was never better or larger. The implement never before sold so many self-blinders, and tons of twine have been sold—and think the government at Washington still lives. Plague take the fly and the worm anyway. The annoying things had about scared us to death.

—A few years ago a candidate for office would have been signing his defeat warrant if he had made his campaign over the country in an auto, so thoroughly did the farmers detest machines. But this year one of the accepted ways of getting out to see the rural voters is by means of cars. The farmers have come right to the front in the easy method of traveling and there are probably more automobiles owned by farmers than by town people.—Hopkins Journal.

—D. A. Wright, of Holt county, Mo., speaking of the effect a coat of manure has on a poor spot in a field, remarks that early in the spring of 1913 he spread a heavy coat of manure on a field that was pretty well worn out. "Last year the corn on that manured spot was the best I had," he said. "And this season I can see just where I manured that old field in the difference in the color of the corn now growing. It certainly pays to save the manure."—Kansas City Drivers' Telegram, June 16.

—Miss Maude Partridge's friends knew she was in love, but how they knew it, we will never tell you; this is a secret that belongs to the girls. Now we all know it, for the St. Joseph Gazette of Saturday tells us that she and a Mr. Andrew Foster, of Topeka, Kas., were granted a permit to become husband and wife, in St. Joseph, Friday, June 16. We don't know that fellow as well as we know Maude, but we do know Maude, and know that he has captured a girl that will make him an A 1 wife.

—Mrs. Mary Foley returned last Thursday from Saint Deroin, Neb., bringing her mother, Mrs. Catharine Cox, home with her. Mrs. C. is in very poor health, and took much worse soon after arriving. Dr. Thatcher was called and at this writing she is feeling some better.

—Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Gray, of Watson, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. C. Anderson, and sister, Mrs. E. E. Evans, of Emporia, Kas., drove down in the doctor's car, Sunday, and spent the day with their son and brother, Raymond Anderson, who accompanied them back to Watson that evening. Mrs. Evans will go to Minnesota in a few days to make her future home.

—Carl Rush, accompanied by Marvin and Marie Hillyard, of St. Joseph, and Miss Elsie Hillyard, of Dubuque, Iowa, drove up in the former's car, Saturday evening, and made a visit with their young friend, Oakley Morris, returning home Sunday.

—M. C. Brumbaugh, Jim Mellugh, Smith Meadows and Dr. E. D. Patterson, of Maitland, were in town, Tuesday of this week, boosting for the big celebration to be held there July 4, and also for one of the best towns in Northwest Missouri.

—Have taken charge of the Harness & Foster garage, and am prepared to do all kinds of repair work on all kinds of cars. I absolutely guarantee my work to be satisfactory. Vulcanizing a specialty. A full line of accessories. WILLIAM HOESSICK.

—Mrs. George H. Conner, of Kirksville, Mo., is visiting here, the guest of Fred Wetzel and wife and Mrs. Kate Seaman. She will remain for several weeks, and will visit with friends in and around Forest City and Craig. She formerly resided in this county.

—George S. Lukens, one of our hustling real-estate dealers, has just completed a deal, whereby John F. Ramsay, of this city, trades his farm of 265 acres in Monroe county, this state, for a ranch of 1400 acres in Southern Missouri. Consideration, $25,500.

—Mrs. John Wilson, of Forbes, was suddenly taken down with an alarming acute attack of appendicitis Friday last and was taken to a St. Joseph hospital and operated upon the same day. Dr. Harmon, of that city, accompanied her, and she is reported as resting very well.

—Mrs. Mary Foley returned last Thursday from Saint Deroin, Neb., bringing her mother, Mrs. Catharine Cox, home with her. Mrs. C. is in very poor health, and took much worse soon after arriving. Dr. Thatcher was called and at this writing she is feeling some better.

—Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Gray, of Watson, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. C. Anderson, and sister, Mrs. E. E. Evans, of Emporia, Kas., drove down in the doctor's car, Sunday, and spent the day with their son and brother, Raymond Anderson, who accompanied them back to Watson that evening. Mrs. Evans will go to Minnesota in a few days to make her future home.

—Mrs. Mary Foley returned last Thursday from Saint Deroin, Neb., bringing her mother, Mrs. Catharine Cox, home with her. Mrs. C. is in very poor health, and took much worse soon after arriving. Dr. Thatcher was called and at this writing she is feeling some better.

—Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Gray, of Watson, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. C. Anderson, and sister, Mrs. E. E. Evans, of Emporia, Kas., drove down in the doctor's car, Sunday, and spent the day with their son and brother, Raymond Anderson, who accompanied them back to Watson that evening. Mrs. Evans will go to Minnesota in a few days to make her future home.

—Mrs. Mary Foley returned last Thursday from Saint Deroin, Neb., bringing her mother, Mrs. Catharine Cox, home with her. Mrs. C. is in very poor health, and took much worse soon after arriving. Dr. Thatcher was called and at this writing she is feeling some better.

—Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Gray, of Watson, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. C. Anderson, and sister, Mrs. E. E. Evans, of Emporia, Kas., drove down in the doctor's car, Sunday, and spent the day with their son and brother, Raymond Anderson, who accompanied them back to Watson that evening. Mrs. Evans will go to Minnesota in a few days to make her future home.

—Mrs. Mary Foley returned last Thursday from Saint Deroin, Neb., bringing her mother, Mrs. Catharine Cox, home with her. Mrs. C. is in very poor health, and took much worse soon after arriving. Dr. Thatcher was called and at this writing she is feeling some better.

—Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Gray, of Watson, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. C. Anderson, and sister, Mrs. E. E. Evans, of Emporia, Kas., drove down in the doctor's car, Sunday, and spent the day with their son and brother, Raymond Anderson, who accompanied them back to Watson that evening. Mrs. Evans will go to Minnesota in a few days to make her future home.